

The Daily Waste

April 20, 2004

In 2002, “EPA’s Inspector General reported that EPA approved some grantees’ work plans without determining the projects’ long-term human health and environmental outcomes. In fact, for almost half of the 42 grants reviewed, EPA did not even attempt to measure the projects’ outcomes.”

And the Democrats want to raise your taxes to pay for more of this?

Source: (GAO Testimony before the Subcommittee on Water, John B. Stephenson, June 11, 2003 GAO-03-628T, page 8)

###

www.house.gov/mariodiaz-balart/watchers/wastewatch.htm